

Playing Together is where children and adults connect with and move together with others, as a team and for fun. Enjoy many ways to move, practice skills, and test their bodies. Work alone and with others to set and meet physical challenges.

Primary Learning Domain: Playing to promote physical well-being, health, and motor development.

Secondary Learning Domains: Developing socially and emotionally through interaction with peers and adults. Fostering a sense of community and culture.

Learning Category	0-1 years	1-3 years	3-5 years	5-7 years	7 + years
Social and Emotional Development	Interaction with Adults
		Interaction with Peers
		Adaptive Social Behavior
			Self Concept
			Self-Efficacy
Communication, Language, and Literacy		Expressive Oral Language
		Listening Skills
				Reading
Community and Culture			Community
			Civic responsibility
				History
STEM		Scientific Thinking
			Technology
				Measurement
Arts/Arts Appreciation		Creative Movement
Physical Well-Being, Health, and Motor Development	Gross Motor
	Fine Motor
	Sensorimotor
			Physical Fitness
			Rules and Self		